DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 67.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Occupation of Attendant at Public Places of Amusement.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "public places of amusement" means and includes theatres, music-halls, concert-rooms, lecture-halls, shooting-galleries, bowling-alleys, swimming-pools, bathing-pavilions, and other similar places to which a charge for admission or service is made to the public.

2. That the minimum wage for every female employee attendant of any age in public places of amusement (not included in any other Order of the Board) whose week consists of forty (40) hours or more shall be fourteen dollars and twenty-five cents ($14.25).

3. That the minimum wage for every female employee attendant of any age in public places of amusement (not included in any other Order of the Board) whose week consists of less than forty (40) hours shall be thirty-five cents (35c.) per hour: Provided, however, that the minimum wage for such employees working two (2) hours or less in any one day shall be not less than the sum of seventy-five cents (75c.).

4. That every female employee attendant of any age in public places of amusement waiting on call for employment, as required by her employer, shall be paid for the time thus spent according to the rate to which she is entitled under section 3 hereof.

5. That no female employee attendant of any age in public places of amusement shall be employed for more than forty-eight (48) hours in any one week or for more than eight (8) hours in any one day, unless a permit in writing has been obtained from the Board.

6. That when female employee attendants of any age in public places of amusement are required by their employers to wear uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel, such uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel shall be furnished, repaired, laundered, cleaned, or given similar service connected with the upkeep thereof, free of cost to the said attendants, by their employers, and no deductions from the wages of the said attendants shall be made by employers for such uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel, or for the repair, laundering, cleaning, or similar service connected with the upkeep thereof.

7. That the Order of the Minimum Wage Board governing the personal service occupation, which became effective on the 15th day of September, 1919, which was rescinded partially by Order No. 27 of the said Board of Industrial Relations relating to the personal service occupation, dated the 29th day of August, 1935, is hereby rescinded wholly.

"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 68.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Christmas-tree Industry.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "Christmas-tree industry" includes all operations in or incidental to the cutting, gathering, hauling, and shipping of evergreen trees to be used for decorative purposes.

2. That the minimum wage for every employee in the Christmas-tree industry shall be not less than the sum of forty cents (40c.) per hour, with the exceptions provided by section 3 hereof.

3. That, provided when (but not until) an employer has paid eighty-five per centum (85%) of his employees in the Christmas-tree industry at a rate or rates not less than the rate fixed by section 2 hereof, he may then pay the other or others of his employees (inclusive of employees in respect of whom a permit has been obtained under section 6 of the Act) at a lesser rate or rates, but in no case shall such lesser rate or rates be less than thirty cents (30c.) per hour.

4. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to his employees in the Christmas-tree industry all wages and salary due to his employees, up to a day not more than seven (7) days prior to the date of payment.

5. That this Order shall become effective on the 11th day of September, 1939.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 31st day of August, 1939.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Pacific Cedar Manufacturing Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 26th day of August, 1939.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 1318 Standard Bank Building, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on business as sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors and operators, timber, shingle, and lumber merchants, loggers and lumbermen in all or any of their branches, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manufacture, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, shingle-bolts, lumber, shingles, wood, and forest products of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in any by-product of wood or of the forest, and in articles and products of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood or extracts of timber or wood of any kind are used or form a part, and to buy, clear, plant, and work timber estates:

(b.) To construct, work, equip, maintain, improve, and operate logging-railways, tramways, light railways, logging-truck roads, and tractor roads, and to construct branches or sidings, warehouses, roundhouses, electric works, shops, stores, docks, piers, booming-grounds, and other works for the handling or storage of logs and other timber products, and other works and conveyances which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(c.) To carry on business as ship-owners, charterers, and carriers by land or water, wharfingers, warehousemen, general merchants, store and hotel keepers, coal and fuel merchants, and dealers in general provisions, supplies, and merchandise of all kinds:

(d.) To search for, stake, lease, record, obtain options over, purchase, or otherwise acquire, grant, sell, lease, operate, exchange, or otherwise deal in timber lands, timber licences, timber limits and leases, claims, berths, pulp licences or leases, resin licences, or any licences or permits relating to any product or by-product of the forest, concessions, foreshore-sites, wharves, docks, piers, booming-grounds, and other works for the handling or storage of logs and other timber products, mill property, mill-sites, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, rights-of-way and other easements, rights, privileges, and property whatsoever in any part of the world, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which may be required or considered convenient for any purpose of the Company or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered desirable of acquisition by the Company; to acquire any rights in and remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(e.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and generally deal in any plant, machinery, tools, goods, or things of every description which, in the opinion of the Company, may be conveniently dealt in by the Company in connection with any of its objects:

(f.) To pay for any property acquired by the Company, either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly by a mortgage or mortgages for the balance of the purchase-money, or by the issue of debentures for such purchase-money or any part thereof, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(g.) To enter into any contract of insurance permitted by law and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, to effect all such insurances in relation to any part of the Company's business and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient:

(h.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, and to develop, accumulate, and utilize water-powers for the purpose of generating electricity or other motive force, similar or otherwise, and to supply the same for the production, transmission, or use of power for lighting, heating, or motive purposes in connection with buildings and other works of the Company, with authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any surplus electricity or power generated by the Company's works, and to construct and operate lines for such purpose, subject to all local, municipal, and Provincial laws and regulations in that behalf:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company.
